What the City Officials of Winters Report After Six Years Without Saloons.

It has been talked around Sonoma and held up as an example of a town (Winters) that went dry and now the town is dead. The statement has been freely circulated and believed. The statements were made without a vestage of truth or investigation, as the following will show:

To Whom it May Concern, Greetings:

I hereby certify that the town of Winters, Cal., has had probition for nearly six years, with the following results:

1. That the buildings formerly occupied as saloons were taken for other lines of business as soon as they could be put in order.

2. That real estate and rental values have greatly advanced.

3. That there are no vacant dwelling houses in town.

4. That by the enlargement of old buildings and the erection of new ones the city has more than doubled it's capacity for business.

5. That the following twenty places of business has opened since the saloons closed: Electric lights, five new stores, one of them having floor space 50x90 feet, one bank, one meat market, one livery stable, one shoe shop, one blacksmith shop, three barber shops, one cannery, one creamery and ice plant, two garages, one moving picture house.

6. That business has not been driven away, but on the other hand, the volume of business has increased.

7. That the average balance of bank deposits increased from $126,000.00 in 1903 to $275,000.00 in 1909.

8. That for the six years of prohibition our city has been practically free from tramps and hobos, tin horn gamblers and dope fiends.

9. That a better class of laborers has been secured; and that the large crops in the surrounding country have been harvested and handled with less difficulty than ever before.

10. That the costs of the town courts have been insignificant and that the grass in front of the jail door has been actually knee high.

11. That before tha saloons were closed our city paid $100 per year for coal oil lights. Now we pay $600 per year for electric lights.

12. That our city officers are now receiving nearly twice as much salary as the same officers received before the saloons closed. Then, $1,356.00 now $2,352.00 per year.

13. That the city has made more improvements, concrete pavements, etc., in the last six years than have been made in twenty-five years before.

14. That at this date, with officers salaries paid up to date, the board has in the city treasury the nice little sum of $6,350.40.

15. That the town taxes have not increased

16. That many drinking men have become sober, industrious citizens; and that many who voted for license are now hearty supporters of prohibition; and that to the best of my knowledge and belief there is not a single business man in the town who would today vote to bring back again the old saloon program.

17. That the wholesale liquor men declared that Winters was worth to them $36,000 annually, thus making our drink bill $72,000 per year. The saving of $6,000 per month in the drink bill of the town of ten or twelve hundred people is not to be despised.

18. That the town is clean and that the ladies and children can go, unattended, anywhere in the town, by day or night, with perfect safety.

19. That there are [illegible] in use in Winters and vicinity over fifty automobiles, and I know of no town of its size that can excel Winters in "getting there."

20. That it is my opinion that any "dry," clean town can get enough honest money for its actual needs, and that, no matter how much license money the saloons may pay, they are an expensive luxury for any town, and that there is no good reason why a saloon should be opened anywhere on the face of God's [illegible]

RESOLUTIONS PASSED BY ST. BARBARA'S GUILD.

The following resolutions were passed at the regular meeting of St. Barbara's Guild, held Tuesday, Feb., 6, 1912, to-wit:

Whereas, There is to be an election in the First Supervisorial District, outside of incorated cities and towns, to decide the question: "Shall Saloons be licensed or not."

Therefore be it

Resolved, That the members of St. Barbara's Guild of Trinity Episcopal Church, Sonoma, California, in regular meeting assembled, do hereby give to this movement for the uplift of all moral and hence all business conditions of this valley, their hearty approval and support. And be it further

Resolved, That copies of these resolutions be sent to the press of this valley and to the leaders of the movement, and that the same be spread upon the minutes of the Guild.

It only shows how desperate they are First it was like a pack of hounds baying at the moon; then the chorus was taken up by the yelping of the curs; and erding with th cackling of geese. It makes no difference who is back of the movement for a cleaner valley, or what inspired the movement, the valley needed a cleaning up and will get it.

Hello! Hello!

"Give me Suburban 85 please, central."

"Hello! This is Suburban 85."

"This is Mr. Bigelow. Is Dr. Parrimore in?"

"Hold the phone and I will see."

"Waiting."

Voice—"I can't find Dr. Parrimore, but when I see him, I will tell him to call you up."

Elapse of an hour.

Telephone rings. "Hello! Is this Bigelow?" "This is Dr. Parrimore."

"Hello Dr!" "I hear it is rumored around that Spreckles and I are after Boyes Springs. Do you know anything about it?"

Dr. P. "I have heard the same kind of foolishtalk. Why even a friend of mine asked me if there was anything in it, and and I told him that it was the D—— foolish stuff I ever heard, and it was idiotic for him to even talk such stuff, and if he heard any more of that kind of talk to knock it on the head. Why you know Mr. Bigelow that I thought you knew me better than to stand for any D—— talk like that."

Mr. B. "I thought so too Dr., and that is why I rang you up."

The future of the road house keepers looks gloomy. They refused to obey the law when they thought the balance of power lay with them; the people that they expected would stand by them have realized that their homes are endangered and refuse to be used as a catspaw any longer; and those whose protection they had bought are threatening to desert them in their me of need unless they come through with more money. The unrightous surely are made to suffer.

Resolutions Passed by Sonoma Valley Woman's Club

The following preamble and resolution was presented, read and adopted by the Sonoma Valley Woman's Club at the regular meeting Friday, February 16, 1912. There was not one dissenting vote:

Whereas, There is to be an election in the First Supervisoral District outside of the incorporated town of Sonoma, said election is to settle the question whether the sale of alcoholic liquors is to be licensed or not, and

Whereas, The Sonoma Valley Woman's Club has always stood in the front ranks for civic and moral improvement, now be it

Resolved, That we give this campaign our moral and hearty support, also that our secretary be instructed to send a copy of this resolution to the press, and to the leaders in this movement and to spread same on the records of this club.

They Just Cannot Tell the Truth

In the so called Spindler weekly letter published in the last issue of the saloon paper the writer made a few assertions that were not only false but misleading as well.

In one instance he quotes the amount of alcohol contained in different brands of medicine.

Now every school boy knows that alcohol is a preservative and is put into these different medicines for that purpose.

In the first place what bearing has the amount of alcohol contained in somebody's medicine to do with the closing of the undesirable road houses?

In the second place, how many people drink a dozen grasses of Peruna or Hood's Sarasparilla in a day?

In the third place, if Mr. S. is going to quote figures in giving the amount of alcohol contained in the medicines why does he exaggerate the amounts?

The following is a report from one of the local druggists upon this subject and gives the exact figures:

"Lydia Pinkham's Compound has 18 per cent alcohol and not 20.6; Paine's Celery Compound has 18 per cent and not 21; Hood's Sarasparilla has 18 and not 18.8; Peruna has 18 and not 28.5. The rest I do not carry, and do not know if they are right, but, since he has raised the per cent on what I do handle, it is reasonable to suppose that he has done so on all.

"Furthermore, it is impossible for anyone to buy opium, morphine, morphine pills, dover powders, cocain or chloral in the drug stores in Sonoma without a doctor's prescription. Just try it, if you think you can."

Election Cost

March 1st 1912.

The total cost for this election as given by County Clerk W. W. Felt, Jr., is $1335.000. Enumerated as follows:

Checking petition	$ 30.00
Publication	125.00
Printing	300 00
Ballots	100.00
Rent of ten poling places	50.00
Election officers	600.00
Election supplies	25.00
Returns	10 00
Special meeting of the board	65.00
Miscelaneous expense	50.00
Total	$1,355.00

Mr. Felt says that this is a very liberal estimate and we are of the opinion that by giving an outside estimate of the actual cost it will put to rest the absurd rumors that it will cost several thousand dollars to hold this election.

If your wife came staggering home a drunken, puking, muttering, filthy mouthed, blaspheming sot after a series of visits to the valley roadhouses you would not live with her a week. Still, Mr. Supporter of indecency, you will do such things and ask her to be decent. My! What a nerve you have.

Does Whiskey Make Criminals?

One of our leading citizens made the assertion that Dr. Bane's address last Sunday evening was a tissue of lies from start to finish. One of the points he took exception to was the assertion that liquor drinking leads to crime and that the prisons of the county are filled by the liquor traffic.

As a direct substantiation of Dr. Bane we print the following from the Sunday "Examiner" of February 11:

"For the first time in its history, the State Board of Prison Directors broke its star-chamber rule and allowed newspaper men, as representing the general public, to have a peek at the practical operation of the much discussed parole law.

The board considered eighty-six cases at San Quentin. The prison directors worked as hard as men could work from 10 o'clock in the morning until after midnight, weighing every few minutes some human life, sending into the world some convict with new hope singing in his heart or turning back others to the weary routine of prison life because they had not proved worthy.

Observations of the deliberations of the board carried several deep lessons.

The first is that the board really wants to give every prisoner a fair chance to redeem himself.

The second is that the board gets right down to the heart of a case in a business-like manner, with no lawyer weeping mothers pleading for their erring ones.

There was more joviality than sentimentality in the proceedings.

The prisoners trembled with eagerness, hung their heads in shame or wiped tears of despair from their eyes. But they soon saw that they must tell the truth. The truth is what these men are after—the truth and that bit of character and gold hidden in every man.

The prisoners were treated with simple kindness, addressed as Mr. So and So, and given every opportunity to present facts in their own behalf.

Other deeply human and tragic facts were to be gleaned at this "Day of Judgment."

It has taken millions of years to develop "man in God's image" out of the scientists' dim form of first life. It takes only one drink of whiskey to start the majority of these men a long way on the road to beast life again.

The hearing was one of the greatest temperance sermons. Practically every man said that drink caused his first and other downfalls.

And yet, at the same time, in these same men hope was struggling in their eyes. They pleaded with all their souls for "another chance."

They got it in a good many cases.

There was the heart rapping at the gates of the various heavens they have built up and there was this passion that was pulling them down again.

The prison directors sought sincerely not to turn out upon the public any man who they thought had not a good chance of overcoming his worst self. Great care is taken to get outside information in each case and most lies are tripped.

Dr. Bane Speaks

A large audience greeted Dr. A. C. Bane, Supt. of the Anti Saloon League of Northern California, last Sunday in the Congregational church

The topic of the discourse was Alcohol.—its Many Forms and its Effects Upon the Habitual Drinker, was covered in Dr. Bane's usual thorough manner.

Every question brought forward by the friends of the open saloon was answered in a manner that left no doubt in the minds of the people as to who is right in this controversy

Library Hours

Beginning Saturday, March 9th, the Public Library will be open every Saturday afternoon from half-past two until five o'clock. This extension of the hours of the library has been decided upon by the trustees in order to afford greater facilities to patrons who reside out of town.

The regular schedule of library hours will be as follows:

Each week day, 7 p. m. to 8 p. m. Wednesday and Saturday, 2:30 p. m. to 5 p. m.

The month of February showed the largest circulation record the library has ever attained. During the past six months the library has acquired, by purchase or gift, over 200 volumes, including many of the most popular works of fiction, both adult and juvenile. In addition there have been a large number of volumes of standard works of various classes.

The library is now in better condition to serve the public than it has ever been before, and this fact is evidently appreciated as shown by the largely increased circulation.

The Librarian and Trustees will be very glad to receive from patrons, at any time, suggestions as to books worth purchasing, or on any other points that will add to the effectiveness of the library.

Trustees Nominated

Thursday nominations were filed with City Clerk Gottenberg by Messrs. Jesse Burris and G. H. Hotz as candidates for city trustees to fill the vacancies left by the outgoing trustees, McDonald and Quartaroli.

Both Mr. Burris and Mr. Hotz are progressive business men, who have the welfare of the town at heart, and should be elected.

Every man in Sonoma who wishes to see his town go ahead should cast his vote in favor of these gentlemen.

Nominations were also filed by Wm. Clewe for treasurer and H. W. Gottenberg for clerk.

In Memory

Mrs. Leanna Olmstead, wife of Jesse D. Olmstead and mother of I. E. and J. A. Olmstead, editors and and of S. H. Olmstead of the Marin Journal, died Wednesday last at the family home in Petaluma.

In the presence of such sorrow how cold and impotent are words, and how deep would be the grief over the grave, did not the rainbow of Christian hope span the dark gulf between time and eternity, and such pure bright lives inspire the belief that there is a better world beyond, where filled from the corroding cares of earth, the good and true are reunited after life's fitful fever.

Provides For Parcel Post

A parcel post system is provided in the regular appropriation bill offered by representative Moon Monday extending the foreign parcel post mail to the domestic service until July, 1914. In the rural routes a graduate scale is provided of 5 cents for one pound, and 2 cents for each additional pound.

The right of postal employes to petition Congress is granted by the bill, that right having been denied the men by department order. The bill carries an appropriation of $229,000,000. Moon declares that the final figures of 1911 will show a deficit in the revenues from the postoffice department of $627,000.

March 18th, 1912 is Parcels Post Day. All farmers in the United States are requested to write to their congressman for the passage of a general Parcels Post bill. Farmers do something for yourselves and don't let the express companies rob you right and left.—Parcels Post.

Petition Verified

The Board of Supervisors on Thursday received from County Clerk Felt the verified petition from this district signed by 539 people, asking for a local option election. The petition was filed and the board will set the date of the election. It may be held in May at the same time as the presidential primary or it may be set later. The date will be determined at this meeting.

Lawful to Use School House for Religous Meetings

Persons in El Verano have objected to the use of the public school house as a Sunday school on Sundays. The following letters are published at the request of the El Verano school trustees, to quiet the people who are doing the knocking:

Editor of Expositor,

Dear Sir: Please publish in your paper the following letter, which I think will be of interest to many readers, especially the party who sent me the type written letter signed non-sectarian, also the letter written and signed tax payer, calling the attention of the Board of Trustees of the El Verano School District to the fact that granting the use of the school house for Sunday school purposes is against the school laws of California:

The following is a reply to my letter to the District Attorney concerning the above.

JOSEPH REVIE,
Clerk of Board of El Verano School District.

Mr. Joseph Revie,
El Verano, Cal.

Dear Sir: Yours of the 17th received. I know of no law that prevents a school house being used, with the consent of the trustees, for Sunday School purposes.

The law prohibits sectarian teaching in the schools of the state for the purpose of preventing children from being subjected to the sectarian teachings involuntarily. But such an objection does not apply to a meeting held outside of school hours and not as a meeting of the school.

Sincerely yours,
CLARENCE F. LEA,
District Attorney.

High License

The high license petition was passed on by the City Dads at their regular meeting Wednesday evening.

Under the initiative it could have been passed by them without a vote of the people, but the trustees thought it would be better to let the people have their say.

It will appear on the ballot at the coming municipal election on April 8th.

Money on Hand for the County

The following is a report of County Treasurer Glen E. Murdock for the month of February:

Receipts—Indigent fund, $3094.68; register state land fund, $3; school fund apportionment, $131.78; state fund, $55.58; teachers' institute and library fund, $16; unapportioned fund, $4115.22; law library fund, $71.25; general fund, $1330.60; salary fund, $2076.25; tax redemption fund, $258.68; estates of deceased persons, 69.20; collateral inheritance tax fund, $235.77, total, $11,483.20.

Disbursements—Indigent fund, $7146.77; rebate fund, 80c; road fund apportionment, $9221.17; school fund apportionment, $29,053.34; teachers' institute fund, $11.50; general fund, $13,177.44; salary fund, $5855.55; estates of deceased persons, $35.90; collateral inheritance tax fund, $30; Panama Pacific Exposition fund, $65,660.57.

Local Option Elections

With the opening of early spring in California, comes more elections than the state has ever known. Most of the campaigns are special and relate to the sale of liquor.

Local option elections will be held in Red Bluff this spring, and elections will be called in each of the five supervisoral districts of that county. The cities of Yreka, Etna Mills and Dunsmuir will face the same question and Siskiyou will put the matter to vote in April.

All the districts in Humboldt county, with the cities of Eureka and Fortuna, the cities of Biggs and Gridley in Butte county, Colusa county, Wheatland in Yuba county, Lincoln in Placer county, Dixon in Salano county, Antioch and four supervisorial districts in Contra Costa county, five supervisorial districts each in Sonoma, Fresno and San Benito counties, all the districts of Santa Clara county and the citie of San Jose, Gilroy, Santa Clara, Mountain View and Los Gatos, and the cities of Hollister, Hanford, Lemore, Sanger, Clovis, Merced and Richmond will reopen the liquor issue between now and the end of April. The city elections will be held April 2 and the local option elections on special dates.

In order to close the saloons and road houses stamp a (X) in the blank space opposite the word "NO" as it will appear on the official ballot as follows:

Shall the sale of alcoholic liquors be licensed in this Supervisoral District outside of incorporated cities and towns?	YES
	NO	X

Remember, to vote against saloons, you must vote "No"

The Meeting at Petaluma Friday Night

There is to be an election in the First Supervisoral District to determine the question whether the people of the district, especially those residing in the beautiful Sonoma valley, will be able to retain their homes or whether the road house is to be allowed to continue in full blast.

This election has been forced upon the people of that district through the continual granting of retail liquor license, until such a state has come to pass that within a radius of four miles there are 61 places that handle and sell liquor. It is claimed that no such conditions exist in any other rural district in the world. During the summer months these places attract to that beautiful valley, a class of the most undesirable people from the tenderloin of San Francisco. Most of these places are run through the summer months in utter contempt of the law.

It has come to such a pass that the wives and daughters of the people residing in that valley are unable to go upon the highways without the fear of coming into contact with, and seeing such sights that is not proper or conductive to good citizenship for them to see.

They have now risen up and ask the help of every good citizen, their wives and daughters to help them in this fight against the road house.

Most of the people engaged in this fight are not prohibitionists; they are not against the saloons because it is a saloon, but are fighting only to save their homes, and that is the reason that such men as the Rev. William Rader, Dr. Guthrie and Dr. Clampett of San Francisco are engaged on Friday night in Petaluma to inform the people of the conditions that exist in that beautiful valley.

It would be impossible to procure the services of such men as these (as these men are not only known over the entire Pacific coast, but as far as New York) unless it was to save the homes of the people living in the Sonoma valley, by doing away with the road houses

Frederick T. Duhring of Sonoma acted as chairman at the meeting.—Petaluma Argus.

Notice

If the party who thinks he has a grievance against me will try to adjust our differences in a friendly manner, I think it will be more gentlemanly than shooting my chickens, and if they will call we will try to adjust things in a satisfactory manner.

County Assessment Work Started

The assessment of property in this district as in every district in the county started last Monday.

The people in this district will soon receive a visit from our genial friend, Mont. Akers, who always has a smile for the ladies and a kind word for the child ren. He is one assessor that everybody welcomes.

Highway Commissioner Buys a Hudson

The Sonoma Valley garage received the following letter from S. J. Chapman, Hudson distributor of San Francisco. It will be read with interest by prospective buyers:

"GENTLEMEN:

"It may be of interest to you to now that I have sold a New Selt Starting Hudson "33" to the California Highway Commission for the use of the Engineering Department. Their engineers investigated the merits of a number of cars and finally decided upon a Hudson because of its clean design. This car was sold at full price, no discounts being allowed or commissions paid to any one.

"The engineer, or technical man, is alway quick to appreciate the advantages of the Hudson and is the easiest man to sell for this reason.'

S. J. CHAPMAN.

Trustee's Meeting

The Board of City Trustees met last Wednesday evening, all officers present.

After the usual routine of business the following appointments for the election board were made:

L. Breitenbach, B. F. Campbell, Jep. Valente, V. Bulotti, L. Green, Roy Pauli and Dixon Fussel. One lady was appointed but she refused to serve alone.

Only one board was appointed a the new division of precincts does not go into effect until the 25th.

The night watchman question was brought up and after due deliberation it was decided to dispense with his services owing to the failure of new business men to fulfill their agreement.

A Narrow Escape

Last Saturday L. S. Simmons had a narrow escape from death while driving his car, although he came out with not even a scratch.

It seems that Mr. Simmons was driving on a grade and turned out to let a rig pass. In turning he got off the side of the road and his machine skidded. He stayed with it until it got to the bottom of the hill, there it landed against a low bank and smashed a wheel.

It is only by divine providence hat the machine did not turn over on top of the driver.

Four incubators of 508 egg capacity are being placed today. The eggs are here to fill them, and they will be started immediately, as many more will be set in a few days and filled.

The new incubator house near the colony west end entrance makes quite an imposing building, and the surrounding brooder houses and runs make an equipment to be proud of, and will be convenient in every way, for the care of the "feathered babies."

The DeArmand Bros. received a telegram shortly after the arrival here of A. DeArmand Wednesday morn announcing the unexpected and sudden death of their mother in Cincinnati, O. They returned to the city by the afternoon train, and may possibly, one or both go to the parental home. They were expecting the father and mother to visit them in the city in the near future.

Lewis, O'Brien Case Decided

In the Superior court on Thursday Judge Emmet Seawell handed down an opinion in the suit of the Sonoma Valley Water Co., against Nellie O'Brien and her sisters, who are daughters of John O'Brien, a well-known pioneer of this valley. The Court gives the plaintiff judgment quieting its title to a certain strip of land. Upon this judgment will probably hang the decision on the water right cases pending. At the time of the trial it was so stated.

The decision, which reached this office too late for publication this will be printed in full in otr next ssue.

Mrs. Elizabeth Allen

Mrs. Elizabeth Allen, wife of Mr. E. T. Allen, passed away in San Francisco Tuesday.

Mrs. Allen enjoyed a good breakfast after which she went into the library, where her husband was reading the morning paper. A few iminutes later Mr. Allen was called away and left his wife in the library.

About that time the bell rang and the boy went down stairs to admit a friend of the family who had called.

When this friend entered the library she saw that Mrs. Allen had fallen forward in her chair. When raised it was found that life was extinct.

Mrs. Allen had no children but leaves besides her husband two neices —the Misses Kenyon of this place and a nephew, who is in the U. S Navy.

Death was caused by heart failure

Howard Gaige is in Miami, Arizona, with his sister, Mrs. Verner Griffith. He says that country is all right for those that like it, but give him Sonoma county.

W. L. Gaige suffered a painful accident the first of the week. While running down stairs into the basement of his home he kicked a large sliver, which entered his foot, causing a very painful wound. At last accounts Mr. Gaige was still in bed from the effects of it.

The dance last Saturday evening brought a nice crowd and a good time was enjoyed by all. The music was furnished by a San Francisco orchestra with one exception. Their piano player was hurt before leaving San Francisco, so when they arrived in Glen Ellen they sent a hurried call to Mrs. Ada Pauli, who came up at once.

Collins and Mohr, the enterprising proprietors of the Don Threatre in Sonoma, have decided to show every Monday evening instead of Tuesday evening hereafter in Glen Ellen. On last Tuesday evening a large crowd gathered at Mervyn Hall to witness the moving pictures, and all stated them as the best ever shown in Glen Ellen.

Baseball

The prospects look good for a first class base ball team this year, judging from the interest that is taken in the practice games.

Sunday was the second time the boys have played together this season, and a close game was witnessed by those who were fortunate enough to be present. Every effort will be made to give all a fair chance before the regular team is selected, so don't be backward about coming out Sunday (weather permiting) and show what you can do.

Agua Caliente Springs

Sacramento, California, Dec. 2nd, 1911.

Star Bitter Co., Agents for Caliente Mineral Water, City:

Gentlemen:—I am sending you the following testimonial, voluntarily, not particularly for your special financial benefit, but believing that there are hundreds of people right here in Sacramento, that are suffering the same as I have for a number of years, and if I can benefit them, as I have been benefited, I will not only consider myself well paid, but that I have performed a duty that I owe to suffering humanity.

For a number of years I have been suffering from a pain in my back, in the region of the kidneys, and during that time I have not been able to lay on my back or left side without suffering intense pain, so I was forced to sleep on my right side. One day while passing your office and laboratory I noticed your sign advertising "Caliente Mineral Water"; I concluded to try it and see if it would help me, and I am glad to say that after using ten gallons of said water the pains have left me entirely. It has done wonders for me, and I trust it will for others that are suffering the same as I was.

I give you permission to use this testimonial in any manner that will be the most beneficial to the general public

I remain, yours truly,

F. WYLDER AYER.

Saleman for the United States Bond and Mortgage Company, Sacramento.

To whom it may concern:

For the benefit of my fellow suffors I feel it my duty to testify that I have taken the Waters of Karlsbad, Marienbad, Tarasp, Switzerland; also of different springs in California, and found in none of them as much benefit in relieving me of gentish rheumatism as the Agua Caliente Springs.

Do You Feel Chilly, Then Feverish and Ache all Over?

Feel Worn-out, Blue and Tired? Have You a Fresh Cold, With Frequent Hacking Cough? Sensation of Soreness in the Chest or Back?

Don't let your case run into bronchitis, or some other obstinate and dangerous malady. The very best medicine to take in such a case is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. Made without alcohol or dangerous drugs, it contains that rare combination of native medicinal roots that will allay a cough (iron it out, as it were), restore the circulation, assist the appetite and digestion, and consequently restore tone to the entire system. That is the reason people look happy once more after taking it—they feel like living, because their liver is active, the blood in their arteries is full of that life-giving quality—rich, red blood. The blood in turn feeds the nerves.

Nervousness and neuralgia are only the indication that the nerves are not fed on invigorating blood. This "Medical Discovery" of Dr. Pierce is nature's own restorer. It tones up the organism and invigorates its functions, furnishing to the body one of its necessary constituent principles of which it is in need.

This preparation is of pleasant taste, agrees perfectly with rebellious and sensitive stomachs, and is extremely effective in restoring tone and vigor to the entire system. It cures troubles of the stomach and at the same time the blood-vessels are given such a toning up as to throw off a cold. One very good reason why it restores the health of run-down, pale and emaciated people is because it first throws out the poisons through the liver and kidneys. It then begins its reconstructive work in building up flesh and making good, rich, red blood.

"I have been a sufferer from indigestion for some thirty years, at times," writes Mr. S. W. Mullenax, of Circleville, W. Va., "and have used medicine from several of our best physicians, which gave me only a little temporary relief. They said I could never be cured. Last winter I was stricken with the worst spell that I ever had. I suffered with such severe pains in the pit of my stomach that I could neither work nor sleep, and my weight went down from one hundred and ninety-five pounds to one hundred and sixty pounds in about two months' time. I then concluded that I would try Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. By the time the first bottle was gone, I felt some relief from my severe suffering so continued until I had used four bottles of 'Golden Medical Discovery.' I am truly thankful for the great benefit which I have received from your medicine, and can cordially recommend it to others."

It Stands Alone not only in respect to its ingredients but also as the only medicine for stomach, liver and blood disorders, which absolutely CONTAINS PURELY VEGETABLE AND PERFECTLY HARMLESS INGREDIENTS, WITH NO ALCOHOL.

It Stands Alone as the best alterative medicine, the makers of which take their patients fully into their confidence and tell them exactly what they are taking. This Dr. Pierce can afford to do, because his "GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY" is made of such ingredients and after a working formula that has thousands of cures to its credit, placing its merits above criticism.

It Stands Alone as Nature's cure for many chronic diseases and its ingredients are: Golden Seal root, Queen's root, Stone root, Black Cherry-bark, Bloodroot, Mandrake root, and chemically pure glycerine.

Remember, these are the ORIGINAL Little Liver Pills, first put up by old Dr. R. V. Pierce, over 40 years ago, and although much imitated, have never been equaled. Made of concentrated and refined medicinal principles, extracted from native American plants and roots, therefore purely vegetable and perfectly harmless. One little Pellet for a stomachic, or stomach and bowel regulator, three tiny granules for a cathartic.

Her Irish Blood

A Story For St. Patrick's Day

By NORA DUGAN

Kathleen O'Bryan was a little girl who had no country, for she was born on the ocean when her parents were coming over from the Emerald Isle. They had settled near a city, but Kathleen had grown up to be seventeen years old without ever once setting foot in it.

Dennis O'Bryan, Kathleen's father, though he was loyal to the home of his forefathers, had become a stanch American. Kathleen did not seem to be especially patriotic for either Ireland or the United States.

"What's the matter with the girl?" Dennis said to his wife. "I tell her stories about Ireland and the fights the Irish had with England, and she takes no interest in them. Then I tell her stories about the colonies struggling for independence, and she cares no more about them than the others."

"Faith, it's because she has a nature of neither. She was born on the water."

"I didn't think of that," said the father.

Along comes two young fellows, who catch their breath when they look on Kathleen's fair face and rosy cheeks. One of them is George Carpenter, a young man whose forefathers came to America as colonists, the other Mike Donegan, who came over from Ireland with his parents when he was too old to forget his native land. Carpenter worked with his father on a neighboring farm, which the latter owned, while Donegan was a painter in the city. Donegan had come out to paint O'Bryan's house, had seen Kathleen and been captured by her beauty. Carpenter had played with her when they were children.

Mr. and Mrs. O'Bryan would have been pleased to see their daughter take up with either of these young men, who were both industrious, saving and of excellent habits, but the girl, though she liked them both, seemed to enjoy the company of one as much as the other.

"Which do you think she prefers?" asked O'Bryan of his wife one day, taking his pipe out of his mouth.

"Neither."

"Do you mean that she won't have either of 'em?"

"No. She stands between 'em. The one is pure American, the other pure Irish. Don't you remember that she was born midway between Ireland and America?"

O'Bryan put his pipe back into his mouth with a sigh. He wished his daughter had been born on one continent or the other. He didn't like this standing always between the two. Nevertheless the rivals kept on each with his courting. George, living near by, had the advantage. He would come in often in the evening and sit with Kathleen by the open fireplace in the living room. She seemed to enjoy his visits, but he never got any farther with his suit. Mike would come out from town Sundays and spend the whole day with her, doubtless to catch up with his rival, but it never developed that he was the gainer.

Some of his friends in the city learned about his country love and that he was making no headway beyond his rival and twitted him about it.

"Just you wait," he said "till I get ready to plunge. I'm an Irishman through and through, and I've got an American to beat. An American is a good even going party standing between the English and the Irish in makeup. The English are the artillery of an army, the Americans the infantry, while the Irish are the cavalry. If I'm going to win the girl at all I'll carry her off before she knows what I'm doing."

It wasn't long after this that St. Patrick's day came along, and Mike invited Kathleen to come to town and see the procession. Kathleen, who was glad of the opportunity, accepted. Mike engaged a window in a house occupied by a plumber friend of his and on St. Patrick's day installed Kathleen there. He was to head the painters, and as soon as he had provided for Kathleen he went to his room to put on his finery, a chapeau with feathers and a green sash.

Kathleen did not have long to wait before she heard the stirring strains of martial music. It approached, and when the grand marshal and his aids came caracoling along, followed by four men carrying a big Hibernian banner, all the Irish blood in Kathleen's fair bosom welled up with pride for the country of her ancestors. From that moment she was filled with an enthusiasm, which every society, each headed by a band, enhanced. Finally along came Mike riding at the head of the painters. Kathleen waved to him, and Mike, digging his spurs into his horse's flanks, made him dance for all he was worth. If there is anything that will move the heart of a simple girl of full Irish blood it's to see a handsome young man on a prancing horse on St. Patrick's day.

Mike had provided a peculiar spur for his right heel, which he used to such advantage that his horse gave a lunge, and Mike intentionally landed on the pavement. He lay still till he was picked up and carried to the sidewalk. In a few minutes Kathleen made her way through the crowd and, kneeling by him, cried:

"Oh, Mike dear, are you hurt? Speak to me! Don't die!"

"I won't, darlin," said Mike feebly "I'll live for your sake."

That settled it. Kathleen's Irish blood had won. She married Mike.

Horseshoes In Turkey.

In many parts of Turkey horseshoes are simply a flat plate of iron with a hole in the middle. An extraordinary method still obtains in portions of the Ottoman empire of shoeing the horse.

The farrier doubles a long rope and knots a loop at the end to about the size of a large horse collar. This is put over the horse's head after the manner of a horse collar, and the knot rests on the horse's chest. The next step is to bring the two ends of the rope between the animal's legs. Each rope then, taken by a man, is hitched on the fetlocks of the horse's legs and brought through the loop in front. Then by a hard, steady pull the hind legs are drawn up to the fore-legs, and the horse falls heavily on its side. All four feet are now tied together by the fetlocks, the horse is propped up on his back, and the farrier sits quietly down beside him, takes off the old shoes and puts on the new.—New York Herald.

What It Really Was.

The district inspector was visiting the school, and as this was an important event the pupils had been instructed to memorize a verse or two to recite for the entertainment of the visitor.

During the delivery of his verse one small boy was especially noticeable for the action with which he accompanied his lines, so noticeable that the teacher complimented him upon the ease with which he spoke and the practice which he must have devoted to the piece.

"It was fine, Johnnie," she exclaimed in closing, "and shows a large amount of rehearsal. But how did you learn the gestures?"

"'Tain't gestures," replied the young genius, with a twist; "it's the hives."—Ladies' Home Journal.

Alike, but Different.

The teacher had the letters c-a-t on the blackboard and was trying to teach little Pansy Peavish to pronounce the word, but Pansy couldn't come it. "Think," said the teacher. "What is it that has some whiskers and comes up on the porch late at night when it is cold and begs to come into the house?" "Oh, I know!" exclaimed little Pansy, a great light dawning. "It's papa!"—Galveston News.

"You lost money on your charity bazaar, didn't you?"

"Yes; but did you ever see such lovely costumes?"—Cleveland Plain Dealer.
